An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with John Mortimer on 3/11/05.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 1, line 2, cancel "at least one of".

Claim 1, line 2, cancel "and" and insert --or--.

Claim 9, line 2, cancel "at least one of".

Claim 9, line 2, cancel "and" and insert --or--.

Claim 9, lines 5-8, cancel "in such a manner that...independently of the other of the first and second sections" and insert in its place --wherein at least one of the sections of said abrasive solid has a cutting resistance of 19.6-147 N (2-15 kgf), and said cutting resistance is determined by measuring a maximum load applied to a cutter blade having a blade length of 22 mm or more and being pressed down vertically to a specimen of each section 20 mm wide at a speed of 7 mm/min so as to sever it into two--.

Cancel Claim 10

Claim 16, line 2, cancel "at least one of".

Claim 16, line 2, cancel "and" and insert --or--.

Claim 18, line 2, cancel "at least one of".

Claim 18, line 2, cancel "and" and insert --or--.

Art Unit: 1755

Claim 18, lines 12-15 cancel “in such a manner that...independently of the other of the first and second sections”.

The following is an examiner’s statement of reasons for allowance:

In view of applicants amendments, remarks and the examiners amendment, the examiner now find the claimed invention to be novel over the prior art of record because said art fails to teach or suggest an abrasive solid comprising the claimed components, wherein the solid has the claimed tensile strength, tear strength and/or cutting resistance. The prior art of record fails to appreciate the criticality of the characteristics defined above. The instant specification clearly shows criticality for the aforementioned characteristics, see specifically page 8, lines 6-16.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled “Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance.”

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Michael A Marcheschi whose telephone number is (571) 272-1374. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F (8:00-5:30) First Friday Off.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner’s supervisor, Jerry Lorengo can be reached on (571) 272-1233. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 703-872-9306.
